

GEG Celebrates Inaugural Journeys of HKMO Express Shuttle at Galaxy Macau

October 24, 2018 – Following the opening of the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge today, Galaxy Entertainment Group (“GEG”) proudly witnessed the inaugural journeys of the HKMO Express shuttle today.

Several GEG executives and HKMO Express representatives, joined by several guests, gathered at the Diamond Lobby Entrance of Galaxy Macau™ at 8 a.m. to welcome the HKMO Express shuttle before its first trip to Hong Kong. Following a simple yet formal inauguration ceremony, excited guests and passengers began the historic journey from Macau’s Cotai Strip to the Elements shopping mall in Kowloon, Hong Kong, via the newly opened Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge. GEG representatives presented the passengers with exquisite travel sets as souvenirs to mark the memorable occasion.

At about 11:00 a.m., the first HKMO Express shuttle from Elements arrived at Galaxy Macau to the deafening applause of GEG representatives and Diamond Lobby Welcome Ambassadors. The arriving guests and passengers were also given souvenir travel sets, after which they were ushered into the Diamond Lobby to enjoy the spectacular 3-metre-tall Fortune Diamond show, which marked the beginning of their pleasant journeys through Galaxy Macau.

In keeping with its “World Class, Asian Heart” service philosophy, GEG is continually striving to offer a unique resort experience for its customers at its flagship properties Galaxy Macau, Broadway Macau™ and StarWorld Hotel with their distinguished leisure and resort features. The HKMO Express came into operation at 9 a.m. today, providing cross-border shuttle service with stops in Macau’s Central District and Cotai Strip and Hong Kong’s Shanghai Street and Elements shopping mall. The shuttle departures will run from 7 a.m. until 4:30 a.m. every day. For weekday journeys, daytime one-way tickets cost HKD160/MOP160, and nighttime one-way tickets cost HKD180/MOP180. For journeys on weekends and holidays, daytime one-way tickets cost HKD180/MOP180, and nighttime one-way tickets cost HKD200/MOP200. Each shuttle journey takes about 140 minutes. Kiosks selling HKMO Express tickets are now available at Galaxy Macau and Starworld Hotel.
