

The Clock Ticks Down to the Grand Opening of Galaxy Macau Phase 2 and Broadway Macau
Around 6,000 Team Members Cheer in the Rally

25 May, 2015 – Galaxy Macau™ Phase 2 and Broadway Macau are coming to its last stage and will open on this Wednesday. In order to show appreciation for the supportive efforts of the team members, Galaxy Entertainment Group (“GEG”) held three rallies in the Broadway Theater recently with around 6,000 members joining together to boost up the morale before the grand opening.

Under the themes “Galaxy Macau: We are WORLD CLASS with an ASIAN HEART” and “Broadway Carnival”, GEG not only hoped to celebrate for the grand opening with team members, but also reiterated the message for members to greet guests around the world with “Asian Heart.”

Mr. Francis Lui, Vice Chairman of GEG and other GEG executive members participated in the rallies and Mr. Lui expressed his gratitude for the astounding contributions of all GEG team members. He said, “Thanks to everyone’s effort, GEG is able to achieve such unprecedented success and become the leading Asian gaming industry. I am pleased to see everyone having commitments in their jobs, encouraging each other and striving for excellence. For the past few months, we work hand in hand for the opening and I am so proud to see all of you devoting yourself to make this happen.”

Hong Kong popular artists Bob Lam and Sarika Choy were also present in the rallies, leading the members to cheer for the slogans and participated for the games designed by the members, filling the venue with ear-splitting cries and applause. Furthermore, one section of the program was presenting a large jigsaw puzzle assorted by the members in different departments to form a gigantic Galaxy Macau integrated resort panorama, displaying the cooperation between the members without boundaries. The Broadway Theater then transformed to a carnival featuring street dance by energetic dancers and artists, rock n roll and troops marching. All these furnished every corner of Broadway Macau with festive joy and added excitement to members for the opening of the new properties.
