Galaxy Entertainment Group announces the appointment of Mr. Gabriel Hunterton as Chief Operating Officer of StarWorld

Galaxy Entertainment Group is pleased to announce that Mr. Gabriel Hunterton has been appointed as Chief Operating Officer, StarWorld effective 9 December 2009.

Mr. Hunterton will be responsible for leading StarWorld operations. Together with the StarWorld executive team, Mr. Hunterton will continue to develop and refine the direction and performance of StarWorld from an already very successful base. He will also ensure optimum execution of Galaxy's overall objectives, plans and policies at StarWorld.

Mr. Hunterton has had an intense and diverse gaming career spanning 12 years in Las Vegas and Macau, having spent the last three years in Senior Operational and Business Development leadership roles with MGM Grand, Macau.

Prior to moving to Macau, Mr. Hunterton commenced his career initially as a dealer at the Treasure Island Resort in Las Vegas. He quickly advanced to the position of Director of Slot Operations at the Mirage Hotel Casino and then progressed to a National Marketing Director role at the Bellagio Hotel Casino, Las Vegas.

We are confident that with this wealth of knowledge, demonstrated commitment to building successful gaming businesses and exceptional customer service, Mr. Hunterton will lead StarWorld to form even stronger relationships with our customers and continued success for all in association with Galaxy.
