

GEG Garner Five Accolades at the 2025 IAG Academy IR Awards with “Best Integrated Resort” and “Best Overall CSR Program”

September 10, 2025 – Galaxy Entertainment Group (“GEG”) garnered five awards at the 2025 IAG Academy IR Awards held yesterday evening in Manila, Philippines, making it the most awarded integrated resort operator in Macau once again. Among the honors, GEG’s flagship property, Galaxy Macau™ integrated resort, received multiple prestigious accolades, including “Best Integrated Resort” for the third consecutive year, the “Best Overall F&B Offering by an IR”, and the “Best Hotel in an IR” for Capella at Galaxy Macau. GEG also won the “Best Overall CSR Program” for its corporate citizenship pledge of “Community at Heart, Empathy in Action”. Furthermore, Mr. Richard Longhurst, Senior Director of Gaming of GEG, was named an “Industry Icon”. Mr. Roger Lienhard, Executive Vice President of Hospitality of Galaxy Macau, attended the award ceremony and accepted the honors on GEG’s behalf.

As a leading integrated tourism and leisure enterprise, GEG actively supports the overall development of the industry, while deepening cross-sectoral integration of “tourism+”. Galaxy Macau is renowned for delivering world-class, one-stop tourism and leisure experiences, bringing together nine international premier hotel brands. Galaxy International Convention Center and Galaxy Arena, both inaugurated in 2023, along with other GEG venues, have hosted over 1,000 high-profile entertainment performances, sports, cultural and MICE events. Galaxy Macau offers over 120 dining options, including selections recommended by the Michelin Guide and the Black Pearl Restaurant Guide, as well as a wide array of specialty cuisines, catering to a variety of palates. The integrated resort also boasts a diverse range of attractions, including the Grand Resort Deck, the world’s leading skytop water oasis that offers impeccable aquatic experiences; the Galaxy Promenade, which houses over 200 international luxury brands; and multiple award-winning five-star spa facilities. Together, these offerings enhance Macau’s reputation as a “World Center of Tourism and Leisure”. The latest internationally renowned hotel brand introduced to Galaxy Macau, Capella at Galaxy Macau, was designed by the prestigious Paris-based architectural firm Moinard Bétaille. Raising the bar for customized service crafted upon the “World Class, Asian Heart” philosophy, it features 95 distinctive suites, each equipped with a private infinity pool, elevating Macau’s high-end tourism and leisure landscape with unique and diverse experiences.

Meanwhile, upholding the philosophy of “What is taken from the community is to be used for the good of the community”, GEG reaffirms its corporate citizenship pledge of “Community at Heart, Empathy in Action” through implementing a diverse range of initiatives focused on four major areas: supporting education, sports, culture, and sustainable development; promoting care for the community and the spirit of harmony and inclusiveness; supporting local SMEs and diversifying of local industries; and promoting the responsible gaming values. Through a series of multidimensional initiatives, GEG has earned widespread acclaim from various sectors and key stakeholders for its contributions to creating lasting positive value within the community.

The 2025 IAG Academy IR Awards was organized by Asian media outlet Inside Asian Gaming, aimed at recognizing enterprises and individuals with outstanding contributions to the integrated tourism and leisure industry in the Asia-Pacific region. This year's judging panel comprised of 100 industry professionals.
