China's unique culture and lifestyle through the distinguished professional approach by photojournalists from Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan.

Receiving an enthusiastic response from the journalists, the competition collected more than 2,000 pieces of art from which 65 outstanding entries were chosen to be on display. The photojournalists, with their professional photography techniques, captured China's colorful yet serene landscapes through the high quality and diversely contemporary submitted artwork. Illustrating the vigorous and high spirits of China, the entry "Watching the Tide" garnered the 1st prize with its distinctive idea of combining the concepts of the static, dynamic, traditional and modern.

Mr. Lei Pang Chu, President of Associação dos Trabalhadores da Imprensa de Macau, Mr. Kwok Yat Ming, Vice-Chairman of Hong Kong Federation of Journalists and Mr. Liang Jianzhong, Vice Chairman of Guangzhou Journalists' Association spoke at the opening ceremony. Mr. Lei Pang Chu complimented on the competition saying that it signifies a tribute to the 65th anniversary of the National Day with the rich and meaningful array of outstanding artworks from the four regions. Meanwhile, Mr. Kwok Yat Ming spoke highly of the prize-winning entries, believing that the exhibition would receive enthusiastic responses from the media and public as it did in Hong Kong. Mr. Liang Jianzhong, coupled on the enthusiastic response from Hong Kong and Macau, confidently looks forward to the upcoming exhibition in Guangzhou.

Galaxy Entertainment Group ("GEG") has been actively involved in the promotion of local arts and culture. As a special sponsor of this competition, GEG not only provides the East Square venue where local citizens and tourists could catch a glimpse of international stars at movie premieres, but it also offers the most cordial hospitality to guests. Furthermore, Galaxy Macau has held a wide variety of art and cultural exhibitions such as those featuring calligraphy, carving and ethnic minorities, while bringing diverse entertainment and leisure activities to Macau.

About Galaxy Entertainment Group (HKEx stock code: 27)

Galaxy Entertainment Group Limited (“GEG”) is one of Asia’s leading gaming and entertainment corporations, and is a member of the Hang Seng Index.

GEG primarily develops and operates hotels, gaming and integrated resort facilities in Macau, the only legal gaming location in China and the largest gaming entertainment market in the world.

The two flagship properties of GEG include Galaxy Macau™, a world class integrated destination resort opened in May 2011 at Cotai, and StarWorld Macau, an award-winning property opened in 2006 on the Macau peninsula.

In April 2012, GEG announced the development of Galaxy Macau™ Phase 2 that will nearly double the size of the existing resort to one million square metres. Upon its targeted completion by mid-2015, Galaxy Macau™ Phase 2 will bring to Macau some of the most exciting entertainment, leisure, retail and MICE facilities. In December 2012, GEG outlined its concept plans for Phases 3 & 4 of its Cotai landbank and expects to commence site investigation works as early as late 2014.

Recently GEG entered into a framework agreement with the Hengqin Island authority to develop a 2.7 square kilometre land parcel for a world class destination resort in Hengqin Island. This project will complement GEG’s business in Macau and differentiate us from our peers, as well as play a key role in supporting Macau to become a world centre of tourism and leisure.

Additionally, GEG operates a Construction Materials Division.
